THE ORPHANS' FATHER

DAN OSTERWEIL

Poland, 1939. Dr. Monek Osterweil leads an ordinary life as a doctor alongside his wife Hela and their young daughter Ewa. As a pediatrician, he feels his sole purpose is to protect and save as many children as he can.

Years later, a mysterious doctor appears in war-torn Budapest. His peers in the Red Cross know him only as Dr. Karoly Kotarba, but his true identity reveals a shocking tale of courage and faith in a time of true despair.

NEW

THE BOY FROM THE FOREST

SHAY EFRAT

11-year-old Shmuel is startled awake by the sound of German planes over his hometown in western Ukraine. As the Nazi shadow begins to fall on their small Jewish community, Shmuel's parents smuggle their son away to a local farm where they think he will be safe. But danger quickly follows and Shmuel is forced to escape into the nearby forest. With nothing but birch trees and death to surround him, Shmuel must beg, cheat, and steal in order to survive.

THE VIENNESE PARFUMERIE

RON GETREUER-GILO

Vienna, 1938. Though her parents refuse to see the rising tides of hatred spreading through the city they have known their entire lives, Kitty makes the bold decision to escape – alone. Based on the handwritten diary and personal letters of a young girl in the Holocaust, The Viennese Parfumerie is a story of love and death, hope and despair, and incredible courage above all else.

A CHILD WITHOUT A SHADOW

SHAUL HAREL

The moving story of Professor Shaul Harel's life from darkness to light, from Holocaust survivor to world expert in pediatric neurology and child development. This book reveals his story, from his time as a child in the Holocaust, through his immigration to Israel, the choice to study medicine, and finally the mark he has made in the field of pediatric neurology and child development in Israel and in the world.

THE RESISTANCE LILY

DANA LEVY ELGROD

At the height of World War II, young and headstrong Josephine Portier is the protégé of a wealthy family in the highest echelons of Paris society. But as the Nazi forces continue to advance, Josephine finds a new calling when she joins the French underground Resistance. Alone, she must brave the secret missions and Gestapo interrogations of a 1940s Parisian resistance girl. In a city ravaged by war, Josephine is drawn into a dangerous game of survival, in which losing is simply not an option.

LALECHKA

AMIRA KEIDAR

The book follows Lalechka, a little girl born into the chaos of war and Holocaust and forced to struggle with the reversals of fortune that lead her time and time again into foreign and terrifying regions. But, beyond that, it is the story of the true friendship between three girls in early 20th century Poland, a friendship that refuses to cower before government dictates. An astonishing manifestation of loyalty and courage.

SURVIVING THE FOREST

ADIVA GEFFEN

Shurka was a happy woman who lived a fairy-tale life with her husband and their two children in their idyllic village in Poland. Or so they thought...

When WWII breaks out, their happiness comes to a brutal end. The family is forced to flee their home and escape into the dark forest, hoping to survive.

RESISTANCE GIRL

HASSIA KNAANI

After her father and brother are brutally murdered at the height of World War II, 17-year-old Chaya and her mother are banished to the ghetto. Chaya manages to escape unseen and meets a young partisan man; his inspiring stories of heroics awaken a desire to join the fighting in the forest. Many fall victims to the long and hard months of fighting, but Chaya and Yehuda persevere and develop a deep emotional connection through the struggles. Will they survive the inferno and regain their lives?

MY DAUGHTER'S KEEPER

ADIVA GEFFEN

In the midst of World War II, a bond forms between Rachel and Irena, sisters not by blood but by a joint tragic fate. But as times become darker and more desperate, Rachel and Irena are forced to part. Through the hardships and the sufferings of the Holocaust, the two women must face hunger, fear, loss, and the most painful of goodbyes, never giving up hope of a happier future.

THE SECRET JEWISH SOLDIER

IRIT KEYNAN

At the height of World War II, Yaakov-Jacques Kalderon is a Jewish soldier fighting for the Yugoslavian army. When he falls captive Yaakov knows that in order to survive, he will have to hide his identity from even the closest of allies.

Years later, Kalderon's daughter happens upon an old diary. As she works to interpret it, the truth of her father's incredible story finally begins to come to light. It is a tale of strength, resilience, and miraculous escapes from death.

THE SHOEMAKER'S LAW

SHLOMO HARARY

When the German and Romanian armies take over the city of Czernowitz, Aaron, a local shoemaker, frantically fights for the survival of his family – including his two-month-old baby. Half courageous, half desperate, Aaron decides to strike an unbelievable deal with the most unlikely figure – one that will guarantee his family's safety. He will make himself useful in this ruined world, where soldiers hold your fate in their iron grip.

THE GIRL ON THE TRACKS

DAVID KEIDAR

As German boots march over the Romanian countryside on their way to Soviet Russia, a young Jewish girl makes a courageous escape towards a better future. At a time where countless men and women try to survive the death trains, 15-year-old Tatiana attempts to board one... to freedom. With a clear destination in mind, her life depends on her unwavering willingness to face hatred and discrimination from all sides. If she can survive the winter.

HUNGARIAN JEW

MOSHE KACZ

Following the wishes of his missing father, Moshe leads his mother and younger sister hand-in-hand into the Budapest Ghetto. At 15 years old, Moshe must keep his fractured, terrified family together at the height of the Nazi occupation – relying on his wits, will-power, and an insurmountable amount of luck to survive.

EVERYTHING SHE LEFT BEHIND

NAAMA LEVY EYLAM

In 1945 Austria, 19-year-old Klara and her family are banished to the harsh conditions of a Nazi labor camp. Strong-willed and resilient, Klara refuses to give up hope and does everything in her power to survive. Years later, the delivery of a mysterious letter sets into motion an unexpected series of events in the life of Alice, Klara's granddaughter. She embarks on a journey in pursuit of secrets from the past, secrets which when uncovered, might just help her decide her own path in life.

THE BOY FROM BLOCK 66

LIMOR REGEV

Moshe steps off the train at Buchenwald concentration camp with several hundred other children. Having endured the horrors of Auschwitz-Birkenau, Moshe has seen more than his share of tragedy. At Buchenwald, Block 66 is to be Moshe's new home. But when just a short time later, the Germans decide to send the camp's inmates to their death, they are not prepared for Buchenwald's secret resistance, which rises up with one mission: to protect the camp's children from harm.

THE BERLIN GIRL'S DIARY

TZVIA GOLAN

From the moment she steps off the train at Auschwitz, Eva Reich has to fight for her survival. In the work camps of Nazi-occupied Poland she experiences cruelty and hatred, but also kindness and bravery – from the people she least expected. Years later, a mysterious diary emerges – the diary of Eva Reich. It tells an unspoken story hidden for years through war, estrangement, and even death.

UNDERNEATH A CHANGING SKY YARON RESHEF

When Syma decides to leave home and embark on an adventure in a strange land, she cannot imagine what will be. Daily life in Palestine is far from comfortable and the reality of living the Zionist dream while embarking on a love affair is agonizing. She chooses to leave everything behind and sails back home, to Poland. But when WWII breaks out and the situation in Europe goes from bad to worse, Syma will have to reevaluate her decisions.

THE COMMANDANT'S DOG SHMUEL DAVID

World War II is raging and Yula is transferred with her mother to a Nazi labor camp. The conditions in the camp are unbearable and Yula's mother is unable to survive, leaving her alone to fight for her life. However, she makes a surprising new ally – Ziggy, the ferocious dog of the camp commandant. Motivated by a fierce will to live and Ziggy's unexpected assistance, Yula will do anything to hold onto life.

A BIRTHDAY IN AUSCHWITZ BIRKENAU ELI REISMANN

Just a few short days before his 15th birthday, Eli is sent with his entire family to Auschwitz-Birkenau extermination camp. As the carriage doors open at the station, the SS soldiers bark orders, directing each person off the train and onto one side of the platform, determining their fate. Separated from his entire family, Eli is left alone to face the horrors of the Holocaust and find a way to survive.

THE PARISIAN DANCER DORON DARMON

Paris, 1939. Helena is a talented dancer in Paris' bohemian quarter. Her life is worlds apart from that of Marek and Annette, the young Jewish couple and their two little boys who live in the apartment above. Then, one day, Marek disappears. And everything changes. Soon, Helena is vowing to keep and protect the boys as though they were her own. But as the Nazis strengthen their hold on the city, the beautiful dancer may not be enough to protect the boys, and herself, from what is to come.

THE NEIGHBOR FROM BERGEN BELSEN

YAAKOV BARZILAI

11-year-old Yaakov and his family are forced out of their home into the unknown. They find themselves in the ghetto, living under impossible conditions, until they are banished by the Nazis to Bergen Belsen concentration camp, to what might be their final destination. A unique story about the unyielding love of a mother, about faith in God, and the naïve perspective of a child in the most challenging of times.

THE LOST GIRL FROM BELZEC

RAVIT RAUFMAN

When little Ruthie and her mother are taken to Belzec extermination camp in the midst of World War II, Ruthie's mother knows that her daughter's life is in grave danger. Desperate, she will do anything to save her from the terrible fate that awaits her, even at the cost of her own life. But she will have to act fast if she wants to give her daughter a chance of survival.

THE BOY WHO JUMPED OFF THE TRAIN

MALKA ADLER

The child-friendly, illustrated rendition of Malka Adler's acclaimed The Brothers of Auschwitz.

When Nazis barge into Itzhak's home one day and force him to separate from his entire family, he is left feeling scared and alone. With no one to talk to and no one to look after him, Itzhak knows that he will have to be strong – and very brave – to survive the war and be reunited with his family. But can he manage to do it on his own?

BENEATH THE WINDS OF WAR

POLA WAWER

Pola Wawer is on the cusp of a promising career when her home city of Vilnius is invaded by Nazi forces. With her husband taken by the Gestapo, Pola flees the city in pursuit of safety.

Met at every turn with persecution and hate, Pola finally finds salvation in the most unexpected of places – among the countryside villages, home of the windmills of her father's design.

But safety is fleeting, and devastating tragedies lie in wait.

Miri Furstenberg was only five years old – and sixty years would pass before she would finally find the courage to write about the night that changed her life forever.

TESTING THE NEW TESTAMENT

EY-AL COHEN

When exactly was the New Testament written? Was Mary Magdalene really a virgin? Could the apostles be considered reliable narrators?

In great detail accompanied by the original Hebrew of both versions of the Bible, author Ey-Al Cohen brings a provocative argument as to the validity of the New Testament's position as a holy text, choosing instead to present it unapologetically at face value: as a written account, translated and copied over centuries, and influenced by political powers, cultural differences, and human error.

JEWISH IDENTITY

DR. RUTH SHAMIR POPKIN

In this intriguing work based on years of research, Dr. Ruth Shamir Popkin guides readers through critical issues at the center of debate, both in the Jewish world in Israel and in the Jewish Diaspora that are critical to the continuity of the Jewish people.

The book elegantly addresses multiple questions revolving around Jewish identity, such as who is a Jew? What does Jewish identity look like today? And how has the world been affected by antisemitism?

LOSE THE DIET LOSE THE WEIGHT

LIAT SCHEFFER BEN YAKOV

Many people bounce endlessly from one diet to the next, with no visible or sustainable results. That is because most standard diets focus on dietary restrictions, calorie counting, and strict routines. But by fixating on external treatment alone, these diets miss out on an essential part of the weight loss process – the mental, emotional, and spiritual. This groundbreaking book teaches you how to rewire your brain and create a profound and long-term change in every aspect of your life, with a focus on eating habits and weight loss.

HAPPILY EVER AFTER

MICHAL LIBEDINSKY & SHAI AVIVI

Every romantic relationship begins with the spark of falling in love, and then moves on to the Big Bang of routine and children, followed by a long, cold winter: the hearts close off, the sexuality shuts down, and the love freezes. Happily Ever After is filled with accurate descriptions of daily scenes and arouses in every couple the calming feeling that everything will be ok. This book teaches readers how to work on challenges in their romantic relationships, instead of running from them.

THE PERSONAL LEADER

BLESSING IN DISGUISE

SURPRISING LIFE LESSONS FROM AN AUTISTIC CHILD'S MOM

BLESSING IN DISGUISE

RADA HEN

Parenting is challenging for everyone, but even more so for parents of autistic children. This book attempts to provide answers to the questions those parents are asked routinely by their environment – friends, co-workers, even their own family.

More importantly, it tells a story of hope, difficulty, courage, and acceptance. It conveys the personal story of Rada Hen, whose son, Adi, is special needs. Adi communicates with the world not through speech, but with his eyes and heart.

LEAVE ME ALONE

ORIT YOGEV

No one chooses to be fat. Many morbidly obese adults and children would willingly give a hand or foot to reduce their body size. Yet they continue to devour endlessly. What is behind this insatiable hunger? Readers will be stunned by chilling, real-life stories of unhappy family relations, violent divorce, injury, and life-changing loss, all intertwined with the unrelenting struggle to fit into the right size. This is a rare document that reveals a different perspective on the urge to eat oneself to death. It is also a valuable tool for practitioners and is included in many Israeli academic institutions as compulsory reading in the study of eating disorders.

GIVING BIRTH – THE REAL DEAL

KEREN BOYKO

Birth and early motherhood are often painted as beautiful, natural, magical experiences. While this is true, there is so much more to the process – and frequently, new mothers find themselves unprepared and overwhelmed. They are often unaware of crucial things they should know about childbirth and experience a huge gap between how they imagine early motherhood and what it actually looks like. This book is a modern tribal wisdom which will guide you through this wondrous, challenging, and powerful time.
