WENDY HAS ONE WING

MESSAGE FROM THE AUTHOR

When I was born with a paralyzed right hand, which doctors said I'd never use, my mother fought for me, determined that I'd play ball, draw, and write. After months of hard work, and against all odds, my hand began to move and function. Today, that's the hand I use when I create, telling stories and writing songs that have touched the lives of millions. In the same spirit of self-confidence, pride, and the faith that miracles are never entirely out of reach, I created Wendy Has One Wing, an 800-word picture book.

ABOUT THE BOOK

When all of Wendy's bird friends decide to fly south for the winter, she is left behind because she is missing a wing. But she insists that she will find her own way in the world. Embarking on her own journey on foot, Wendy wonders if she truly can make it alone. And then, it turns out that Wendy isn't alone. She meets new friends along the way — a guitar without strings, a clock without hands, a rainbow without any colors, and more. Her new friends show her that they are wonderful just as they are, and Wendy comes to realize that she, too, is powerful and complete just as she is.
