THE OFFICER OF DACHAU

DORIT JOURNO

Twenty-year-old nurse Ilse spends most of her time dutifully tending to the sick and injured. When she first meets the striking Johan Kirche, she is immediately captivated. But as their courtship ensues, something begins to change behind his once beautiful blue eyes...

When she discovers Johan is a brutal SS officer, Ilse ends their relationship. But as the Nazi party sweeps through Germany, Ilse's past comes knocking on her family's door – and their future will be forever changed.

NEW

THE SILENCE AFTER THE STORM

ALIZA KLEBANOV FLORENTHAL

The heavy wooden doors slam shut as Frieda steps inside the local synagogue, where her community is ordered to gather by the pro-Nazi Lithuanian army. Though she is scared, Frieda still believes no harm will come to her family. Until the shots ring out.

Hundreds of miles away, completely unaware of the horrors enveloping their country, Frieda's sons face the dangers of war-torn Europe with only their ingenuity to keep them safe, as they long for the day they can finally reunite with their family.

ADIVA GEFFEN

As Nazi forces march through France, seventeen-year-old Jutta wakes one morning to find her sister, Sara, gone. With the urge for revenge burning in her veins, Jutta joins the French resistance, biding her time until she can bring her sister's tormentors to justice.

Jutta will endure anything to keep the vow she made to her sister. Even if it means giving up her own freedom. Even if it means forfeiting her life.

THE LAST BOY IN AUSCHWITZ

MOSHE BOMBERG

Moshe and his family flee their hometown of Warsaw in a desperate bid for survival as Nazi forces advance on the city. But when Moshe and his brother find themselves on a train bound for Auschwitz, they know their chances of getting through the war are better together.

Until a devastating accident leads the brothers to confront an impossible choice – stay together and perish, or part ways for the smallest chance to survive.

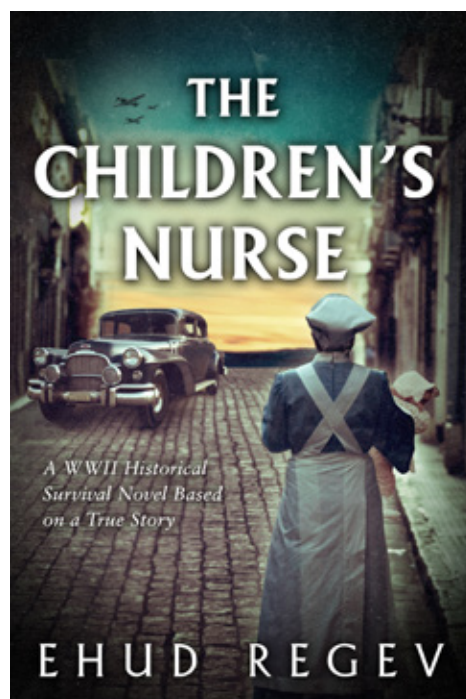

ESCAPING BUDAPEST

EITAN POSNER HALEVY

When a drunken neighbor brings the ruthless Arrow Cross gendarme straight to their front door, the Levy family realizes their days in the city they once called home are numbered.

To increase their chances of survival, the stronghearted Miriam Levy and her husband Istvan decide to split from their daughter, Magda. While Istvan finds shelter at the Swiss Embassy, Miriam is caught by a Hungarian mob, and Magda fights with all she has to save her new husband's life.

THE CHILDREN'S NURSE

EHUD REGEV

Merie watches as bombs fall on the once-peaceful streets of Warsaw. Her husband pleads with her to flee with him, but Merie refuses to leave her patients, Warsaw's injured and orphaned children. However, when the occupation of Warsaw is complete Merie has no choice but to follow her husband. Merie experiences extreme poverty and grief but also unbelievable acts of kindness, discovering strength she never knew she had. Will it be enough for her and her children to not only survive the war – but to heal?

THE WAR TWINS OF LONDON

DEB STRATAS

Identical twins Maggie and Tillie are thriving in 1940s London. Waitresses in one of the city's finest institutions and both with budding romances, the war could not feel farther away.

Then, the Blitz begins. And everything changes.

Nightly airstrikes wreak havoc on the city. Ambulance shifts for Tillie become desperate rescue missions, while the constant fear for the fates of their beloveds, far from home, is almost too much for the girls to bear.

And when tragedy strikes for both sisters, nothing will ever be the same again.

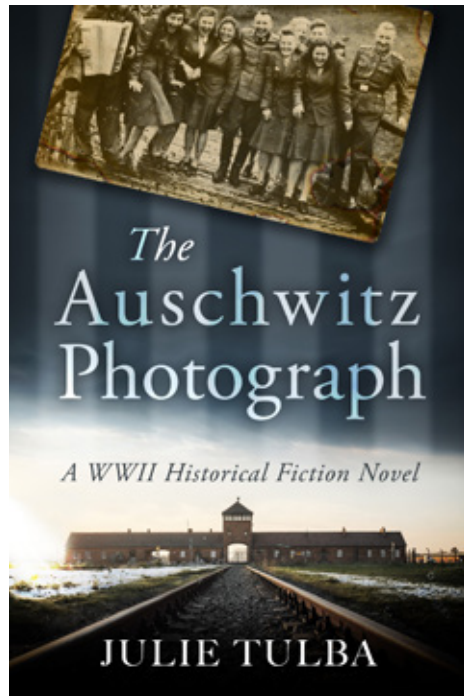

A BURNING LONDON SKY

DEB STRATAS

Identical twins Maggie and Tillie have each suffered loss and heartbreak, but their hardships are only just beginning. Which is why, when Maggie is confronted with a choice, it is one of the hardest she will ever have to make: stay with her sister and family or leave them behind for a dangerous military role manning the anti-aircraft batteries protecting London's skies.

Though it pains her to leave, Maggie can't ignore her duty. But life as a war girl will put her bravery and resolve to the test every single day.

THE AUSCHWITZ PHOTOGRAPH

JULIE TULBA

Samuel Weiss and Max von Hofmannsthal were best friends until the cruel antisemitism of Nazi Germany seeped into Berlin and tore their friendship apart. As Max rises in the ranks of the Nazi SS, Sam and his Jewish family struggle to survive the concentration camps, praying for the war to end. And when Max and Sam's paths cross once again among the bleak barracks of Auschwitz-Birkenau, their fates will intertwine in ways neither of them could ever have expected.

THE SURVIVOR FROM BLOCK 19

ARIE BLUMENFELD

Samuel is only sixteen when he enters the gates of Auschwitz-Birkenau. Forced deep inside the camp, he is marched past the smoking crematoriums, toward his future, toward his fate. Toward Block 19. Block 19 will test his bravery and endurance in ways he could never have imagined. Even if he survives, will he ever heal from the deep scars of such darkness?

THE POLISH NURSE

LEAH MOYES

When Aleksandra is taken from school one day to join the infamous Lebensborn program – the German “voluntary reproduction” program, she knows her survival depends on keeping her true identity a secret.

Following a daring escape in a foreign land, Aleksandra takes a job as a nurse in the German city of Dresden. But just as she starts to think she might live to see the end of the war, her carefully crafted secret begins to unravel. If she ever wants to see her home and family again, she will have to risk it all – on her own.

THE SECRET JEWISH SISTERS

TIKVA RAGER

As the Nazi Party rises to power, sisters Rita and Suzie are sent to live in a small abbey outside Antwerp under the guise of two Christian orphans. But before he leaves, their father entrusts Rita with a task that will forever change her life...

Rita is left in charge not only of her sister — but of the secret of their Jewish identities. While Suzie is quick to embrace the abbey's Christian upbringing, Rita remains haunted by the secret that could spell only heartbreak and pain for them both.

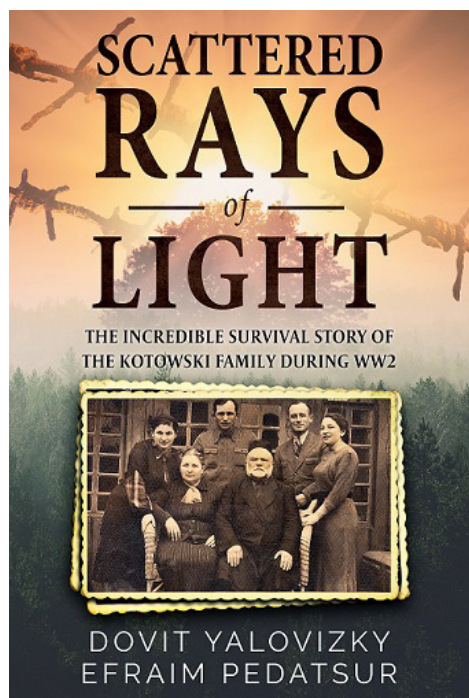

TWINS OF WAR: PART 1: THE VOW PART 2: THE SACRIFICE

DANA LEVY ELGROD

Ania and Michalina are as different as two twins can be. While Ania revels in the gilded life of high society Warsaw, Michalina yearns for more.

When World War II threatens to overturn their lives, the sisters' bond is put to the test. Separated in the chaos, Ania vows to keep Anton, Michalina's beloved, safe. Little does she know, Anton has made the same promise about her.

With no end in sight, it's only a matter of time before Anton and Ania's loyalty to their loved ones, and to themselves, will face the ultimate trial.

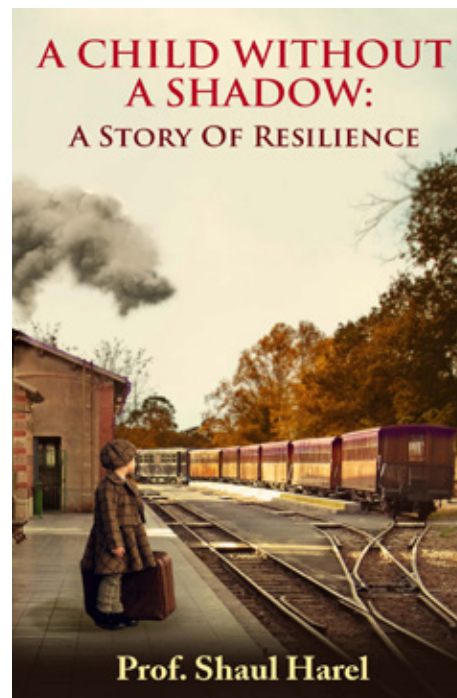

SCATTERED RAYS OF LIGHT

DOVIT YALOVIZKY & EFRAIM PEDATSUR

The quiet life of the Kotowski family is disrupted abruptly when Nazi Germany invades their homeland. Fearing capture, the tight-knit family splits up and disperses in different directions, in the hope that at least some of them will have a fighting chance of survival.

This is the fascinating story of the Kotowski family, who was thrown deep into the flames that lit the fire that exterminated six million Jews, and their incredible true story of survival against the odds.

A CHILD WITHOUT A SHADOW

PROF. SHAUL HAREL

The moving story of Professor Shaul Harel's life from darkness to light, from Holocaust survivor to world expert in pediatric neurology and child development. This book reveals his story, from his time as a child in the Holocaust, through his immigration to Israel, the choice to study medicine, and finally the mark he has made in the field of pediatric neurology and child development in Israel and in the world.

THE LIGHT THROUGH THE STORM

DR. MARGALIT GANOR

August, 1942. Dr. Leon Schmeltzer, his wife Donia, and their baby daughter attempt to flee Nazi-occupied Romania under the cover of darkness. They hastily board a small ship, leaving behind family, friends, and the only life they ever knew – But their path to freedom does not sail over smooth waters.

Even as endless waves threaten to drown what little hope they have, the desperate refugees find that the hatred in the hearts of men is more terrifying than any force of nature.

MY DAUGHTER'S KEEPER

ADIVA GEFFEN

In the midst of World War II, a bond forms between Rachel and Irena, sisters not by blood but by a joint tragic fate. But as times become darker and more desperate, Rachel and Irena are forced to part. Through the hardships and the sufferings of the Holocaust, the two women must face hunger, fear, loss, and the most painful of goodbyes, never giving up hope of a happier future.

SURVIVING THE FOREST

ADIVA GEFFEN

Shurka was a happy woman who lived a fairytale life with her husband and their two children in their idyllic village in Poland. Or so they thought... When WWII breaks out, their happiness comes to a brutal end. The family is forced to flee their home and escape into the dark forest, hoping to survive.

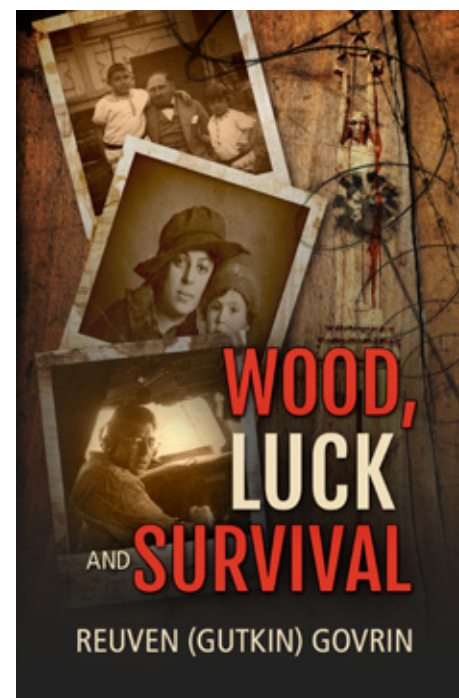

THE WAY OF FATE

GEORGE SHEFI

George Shefi is only seven years old when his mother sends him to England on the Kindertransport following the horrors of Kristallnacht. All alone, George does not know that as he waves goodbye to his mother, he is seeing her for the very last time.

Shefi tells his amazing story with sincerity laced with humor. He relates wandering England as a child, his journey to an uncle in America, and finally his immigration to Israel in 1949, culminating in a shocking revelation – and an emotional reunion.

WOOD, LUCK AND SURVIVAL

REUVEN (GUTKIN) GOVRIN

This is the riveting story of how wood and luck somehow enabled Max Gutkin and his father to survive the Holocaust, unlike so many others. It traces their harrowing journey from work camp to work camp as laborers for the Nazis, a terrible choice they are forced to make, the aftermath of the war in Europe, and finally their arrival in Israel. For 65 years Max silently bore the burden of these memories until his sons led him on this path of discovery through his painful personal history.

AFTER THE DARKEST HOUR

YECHESKEL RUBIN

After losing her husband and son to the German labor camps of World War II, Maria Zaneski's only consolation from the horrors of war is her youngest daughter, Anna.

After years in exile, Olek Rabinovitch returns home to Poland in search of family members who may have survived the war. He takes up residence in Maria's rental apartment, where he and Anna quickly develop a unique partnership. But Olek's homecoming has a darker, secret reason. One he cannot risk sharing with anyone—not even with Anna.

THE VIENNESE PARFUMERIE

RON GETREUER-GILO

Vienna, 1938. Though her parents refuse to see the rising tides of hatred spreading through the city they have known their entire lives, Kitty makes the bold decision to escape – alone. Based on the handwritten diary and personal letters of a young girl in the Holocaust, The Viennese Parfumerie is a story of love and death, hope and despair, and incredible courage above all else.

THE ORPHANS' HOME

MICHAL BEN GAL

The Children's Home is a sanctuary – a safe haven, school, and a place to call home for Jewish orphan children with nowhere else to go. Under the kind and perceptive eyes of caregiver Janusz Korczak, 107 children thrive and bring life to a city ravaged by World War II.

In 25 inspiring and heartwarming stories, the incredible and almost forgotten life and educational work of Janusz Korczak, the father of orphans, come to light.

BOYS OF COURAGE

AMOS BLAS

Kadish is barely more than a boy when war breaks out. Forced to grow up fast, he takes it upon himself to provide for his family in the ghetto – his helpless parents and younger cousin Robbie.

Until one night, Kadish disappears.

Years later, Robbie is now an old man. He's never known what happened to his hero after that terrifying day – until a phone call startles him in the middle of the night.

A stunning revelation unravels an incredible story that has waited decades to be told.

UNDERNEATH A CHANGING SKY

YARON RESHEF

When Syma decides to leave home and embark on an adventure in a strange land, she cannot imagine what will be. Daily life in Palestine is far from comfortable and the reality of living the Zionist dream while embarking on a love affair is agonizing. She chooses to leave everything behind and sails back home, to Poland. But when WWII breaks out and the situation in Europe goes from bad to worse, Syma will have to reevaluate her decisions.

LALECHKA

AMIRA KEIDAR

The book follows Lalechka, a little girl born into the chaos of war and Holocaust and forced to struggle with the reversals of fortune that lead her time and time again into foreign and terrifying regions. But, beyond that, it is the story of the true friendship between three girls in early 20th century Poland, a friendship that refuses to cower before government dictates. An astonishing manifestation of loyalty and courage.

THE PARISIAN DANCER

DORON DARON

Paris, 1939. Helena is a talented dancer in Paris' bohemian quarter. Her life is worlds apart from that of Marek and Annette, the young Jewish couple and their two little boys who live in the apartment above. Then, one day, Marek disappears. And everything changes. Soon, Helena is vowing to keep and protect the boys as though they were her own. But as the Nazis strengthen their hold on the city, the beautiful dancer may not be enough to protect the boys, and herself, from what is to come.

LIMOR REGEV

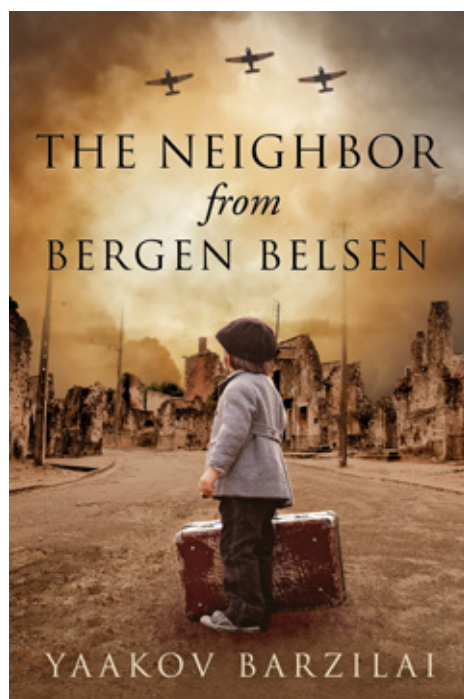

Moshe steps off the train at Buchenwald concentration camp with several hundred other children. Having endured the horrors of Auschwitz-Birkenau, Moshe has seen more than his share of tragedy. At Buchenwald, Block 66 is to be Moshe's new home. But when just a short time later, the Germans decide to send the camp's inmates to their death, they are not prepared for Buchenwald's secret resistance, which rises up with one mission: to protect the camp's children from harm.

MY NAME IS VITTORIA

DAFNA VITALE BEN BASSAT

Vittoria Vitale was born into a noble Jewish family in the north of Italy in the very same year that Mussolini met his Jewish lover. With the onset of World War II, she is forced to gather her family and flee the country, making critical and life-changing decisions as she goes. Her life is quickly carried away by a swirl of atrocities, decisions, farewells and remorse that will scar Vittoria and her family forever.

YAAKOV BARZILAI

11-year-old Yaakov and his family are forced out of their home into the unknown. They find themselves in the ghetto, living under impossible conditions, until they are banished by the Nazis to Bergen Belsen concentration camp, to what might be their final destination. A unique story about the unyielding love of a mother, about faith in God, and the naïve perspective of a child in the most challenging of times.

SIBLINGS OF WAR

CHANOCHI ZAKS

September, 1939. The Zaks siblings leave their quiet Polish hometown, on the run from the Nazis. But their escape does not go unhindered; and as they are captured by invading German forces, their father's last command echoes in their minds: "Whatever you do, never, ever leave any one of your siblings behind." Reunions and tragedies follow as the Zaks siblings witness the horrors of Auschwitz, Buchenwald, and Bergen-Belsen, with only each other to protect them from the greatest evils man has ever known.

THE KEEPER OF THE LAUGH

DANNY FROMCHENKO

Max cannot remember anything from his life before the concentration camp. All he is left with is a sickening, maniacal laugh that echoes in his head. Alexandra Brecholdt seems adamant on taking Max into her care, but there is something she is too afraid to tell him. The secret of her fortune, her survival - and her son. As Max's memories begin to unravel, he and Alexandra will learn the true meaning of courage, love, hope - and the ultimate secret behind the laugh.

HOPE COMES KNOCKING

MICKY SEIFFE

When Micky was sent to the UN zone on the Suez Canal, he could not have imagined that in October 1973 he would be facing the muzzles of Egyptian guns. That was the opening shot to the 6 weeks of physical and psychological torture in which he was certain more than once that death would catch up with him. But the human survival instinct is stronger than anything. Hope Comes Knocking is an inspiring story, a lesson from the legacy of warfare and a must-read for every person.

HEAVEN AND HELL

YAIR DORI

Heaven and Hell is the living record of a generation, crisscrossed by the personal story of a family and the most intimate fibers of Yair Dori's being. It is an exemplary human response to dire straits. Yair kept on running with indefatigable spirit for the innocent victims of the Holocaust, the dreams of his suffering people, to maintain dignity in a horrible Egyptian prison, and to overcome his near-fatal physical and emotional injuries. His response: "Heaven and Hell – I regret nothing!"

THEY CALLED HIM A GANGSTER

ZALI DE TOLEDO

Only few people are well acquainted with Meyer Lansky, the 'Mob's Accountant', who, in his youth, managed the investments of the New York mafia singlehandedly.

Zali de Toledo was just a teenager when an intimate relationship developed between them. In this riveting and unique memoir, de Toledo reveals her powerful love affair with Lansky, the hundreds of letters he wrote to her over the years, and the other, more sensitive side of the man who was, in the eyes of many, nothing more than a criminal.

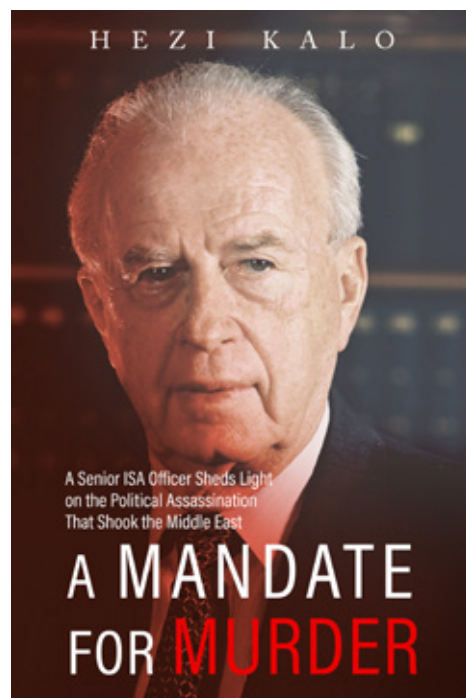

INSIDE THE ROOM WHERE IT HAPPENS

YONA BARTAL

Yona Bartal's long and exciting career as deputy director of the Israeli President's Office has made her a fly on the wall of some of the most politically charged rooms in the world – the oval office, the Russian Kremlin, even the Vatican's inner chambers.

Bartal recounts and exposes meetings and events that helped shape the Middle East, giving readers a rare glimpse into global diplomacy in action: from historic peace talks with foreign powers to forging friendships with Bono and Madonna over drinks.

A MANDATE FOR MURDER

HEZI KALO

On November 4th, 1995, decades of fierce political conflict culminated in the violent assassination of Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin. As the shock subsided and a nation mourned, hard questions began to surface – questions like how could this happen? Why? And perhaps most importantly – could it have been prevented?

For the first time, a troubling story of institutional incitement and deliberate escalation is revealed by a senior Israeli GSS officer who feared the worst – and was powerless to stop it.

ISRAEL: A GIGANTIC SMALL COUNTRY

JEAN-PIERRE LÉVY

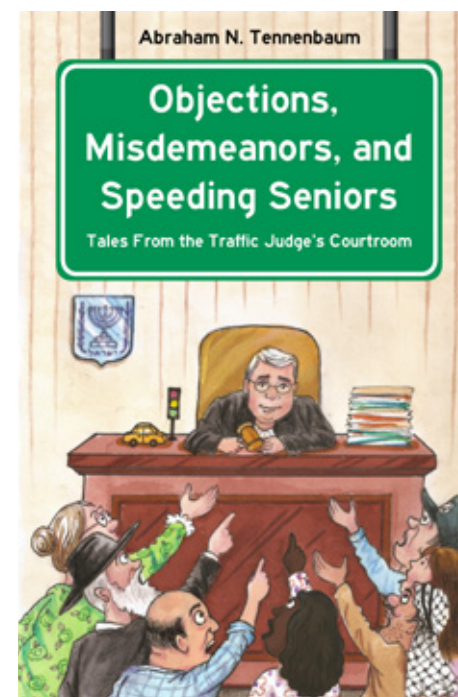

Jean-Pierre Lévy's love affair with Israel began in 1962 and lasts to this day. In his book, the former marketing executive, Harvard alumnus, and war veteran discusses Israel, the "gigantic small country," while directing his words to those who are too often unaware of what the Holocaust was and know little about the toils of the only Jewish state. In a relationship that is both historical and educational, the author presents them with Israel's greatest achievements.

CARELESS

AVIVA ELAD M.D.

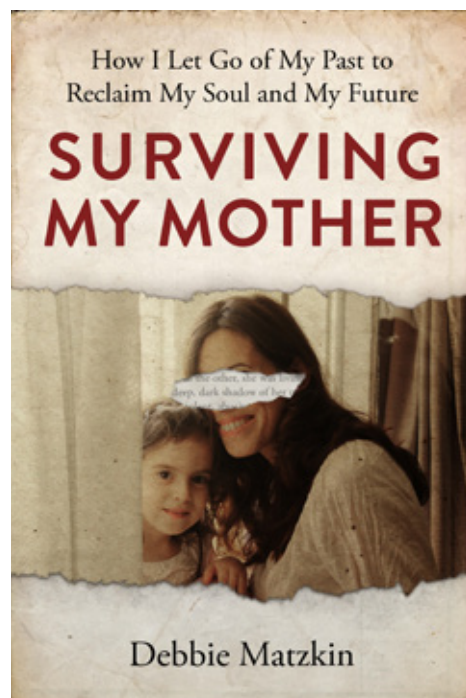

Practicing physician Dr. Aviva Elad delves into how and why doctors, nurses, and other medical professionals are caught in a system that renders them unintentionally careless – and harmful. Drawing on her case studies and personal experience, Dr. Elad demonstrates firsthand how overworking, understaffing, and detachment all contribute to the sickness of modern-day healthcare. In her insightful book, she highlights the problems – but shines a light on the solutions as well.

PROF. ARI NEUMAN &
DR. OZ GUTERMAN

The 21st century presents new and complicated challenges for our younger generations, challenges that the traditional, outdated education system is no longer sufficient to prepare them for.

If school smart is no longer good enough – teach them to be Home Smart.

This groundbreaking book examines the fascinating causes behind the rise in homeschooling, addresses the emotional, social, and intellectual implications of choosing to educate your children at home, and provides tools, advice, and positive encouragement to parents interested in joining and embracing the future of education.

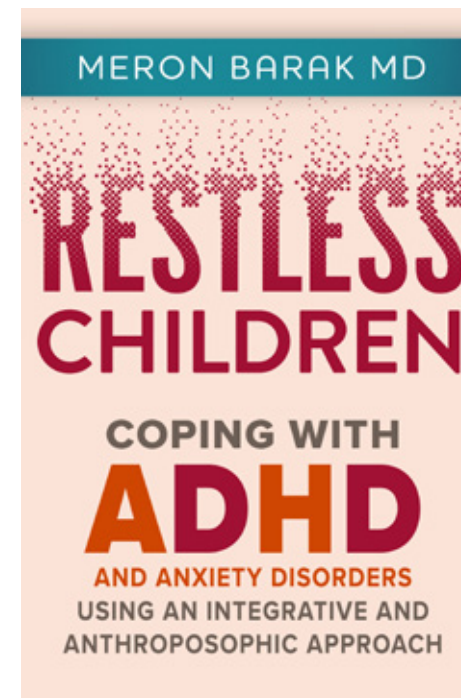

WHAT EVERY CHILD NEEDS

JONATHAN DORON

In this best-selling book, now in its ninth edition, Jonathan Doron shares his incredible life story and how he was able to impact the hearts and minds of countless children, parents and educators in Israel and around the world.

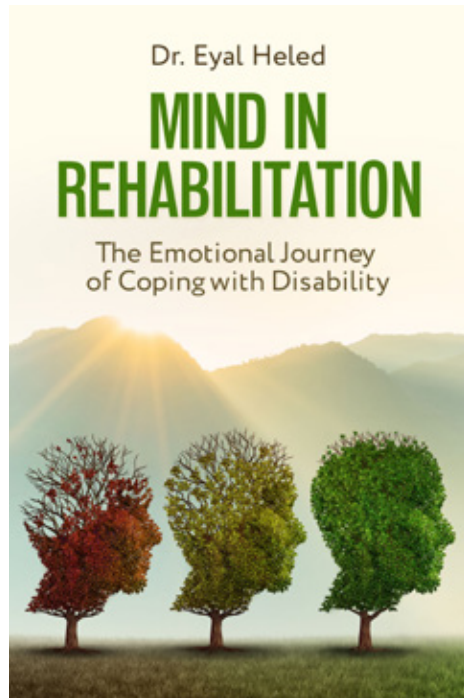

This book offers parents and educators insights, guidance, and practical advice on how to develop deep listening skills, compassion, and the ability to honor every child's unique world – so children can receive what they truly need to flourish and be all they can be.

RESTLESS CHILDREN

MERON BARAK M.D.

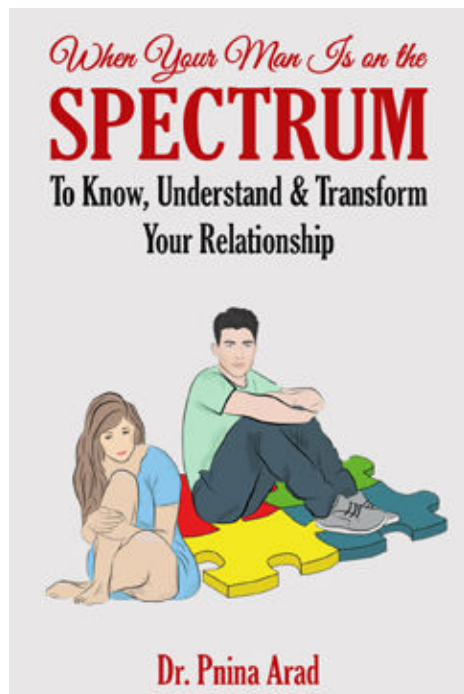

Restless Children presents a groundbreaking approach to helping children with attention deficits or anxiety disorders thrive in school and in family life. Dr. Barak, an experienced physician, ADD and ADHD specialist, and psychotherapist, bases his proven method on a holistic approach that integrates medicine and anthroposophical pedagogy.

MIND IN REHABILITATION

DR. EYAL HELED

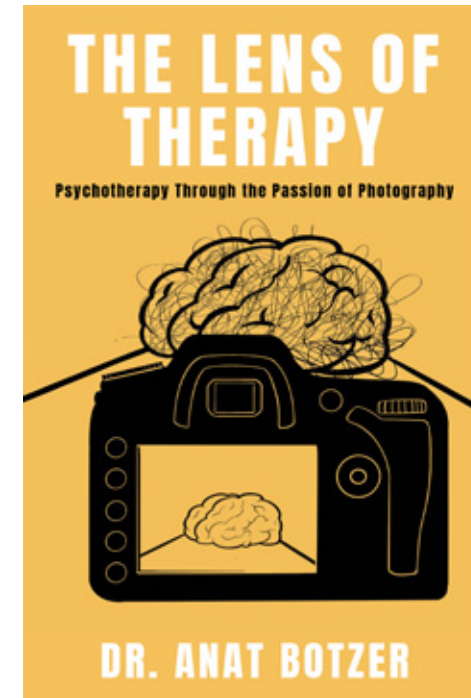

Dr. Eyal Heled, a rehabilitation psychologist and neuropsychologist, sheds light on the main emotional issues in rehabilitation and the unique challenges faced by rehabilitation psychologists. He provides a rare glimpse into the minds of people with disabilities during rehabilitation, presenting real case studies from his work and exposing the complexity of the process of adaptation to life with disability, experienced by adults and children alike.

WHEN YOUR MAN IS ON THE SPECTRUM

DR. PNINA ARAD

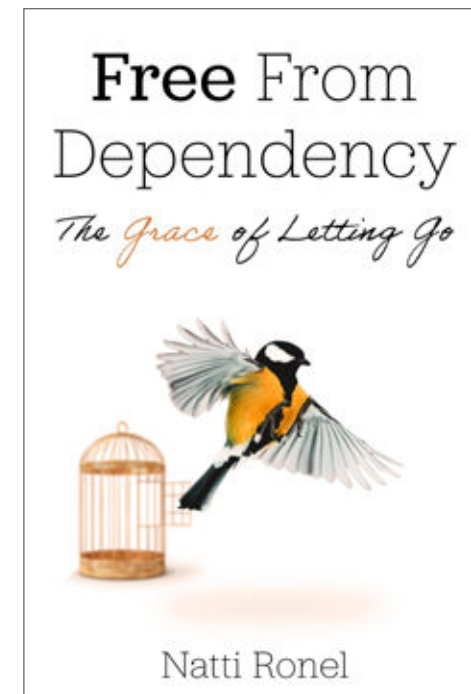

Many women cope with hardship, communication lapses, and severe emotional deprivation in their romantic relationships, without even suspecting that their partner might be on the autistic spectrum. In this book you will discover why most adults with high-functioning autism are not diagnosed, how autistic traits are expressed in a romantic relationship while going unnoticed by others outside of it, what experiences women in neurodiverse relationships share, and much more.

THE LENS OF THERAPY

ANAT BOTZER

Phototherapy, a budding field in psychotherapy, combines two worlds together to create a therapeutic method based on a passion for the visual. In a brilliant analysis, Anat Botzer, a psychotherapist and artist, highlights the hidden layers in the relationship between a therapist and a patient, comparing them with the layers in the creative photography process. All these combine to provide a comprehensive and enlightening introduction into the contemporary, magical field of phototherapy – therapy through photography.

FREE FROM DEPENDENCY

PROF. NATTI RONEL

Dependencies, addictive behaviors, and powerlessness all stem from one source, deep within us: Self-Centeredness. The Path of Grace is a structured system which promotes self-change. Through this book you will be able to visualize and apply it in a variety of daily situations, exercise stepping away from the many forms of self-centeredness that take hold in your life, and grow towards a rewarding, joyous, loving life.

The Neckerchief Revolution

Maya Wizel, PhD

How Tying Together
Formal and Non-formal Pedagogy Makes for Better Education

THE NECKERCHIEF REVOLUTION

DR. MAYA WIZEL

Through her methodical yet poignant research, lifelong education innovator Dr. Maya Wizel demonstrates how the values of youth movements, summer camps, and other non-formal educational settings can help guide the new generation of educators and policy makers. She brings the voices of educators who “crossed over” from the non-formal to the formal system, carrying with them values and practices that help fulfill and advance the current goals of formal education systems.

STORYTELLING THERAPY

DR. ORIT EVEN SHOSHAN-RESHEF

After more than 20 years of working with children, teens, and adults, Dr. Even Shoshan-Reshef captures the essence of the dynamic therapeutic process with a new form of storytelling therapy. Using her innovative method, she harnesses patients’ imagination as a therapeutic tool to project their inner dialogues and emotions in a clear, non-hostile environment. In a detailed account of her process over several individual and group sessions, she unfurls her unique method as she manages to bring her patients’ stories from the mind – to the page.

THE ORIGIN OF DREAMS

SHLOMO YAKOBOVITZ

Where do dreams stem from? Do they serve a higher purpose, or are they random? And what is it about dreams that inspires so many people?

The Origin of Dreams provides a comprehensive examination of this universal human experience. Thought-provoking, eloquent, and meticulous, it is an awe-inspiring journey through the ages that explores how not just our dreams – but dreaming – define us as individuals, social beings, and human beings.

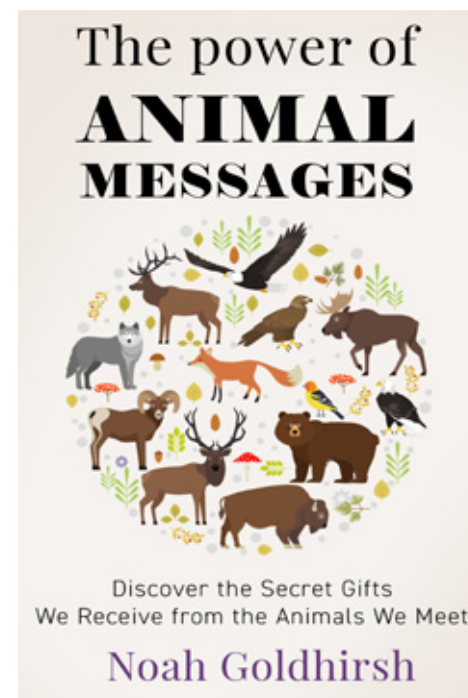

52 WEEKS OF DEVOTION

MATI SERI

No matter how close we wish to be to our faith and with God, the Bible can sometimes feel overwhelming. 52 Weeks of Devotion helps you study God's Word and the wondrous lessons of the Old Testament in short, 15-minute segments to be read weekly.

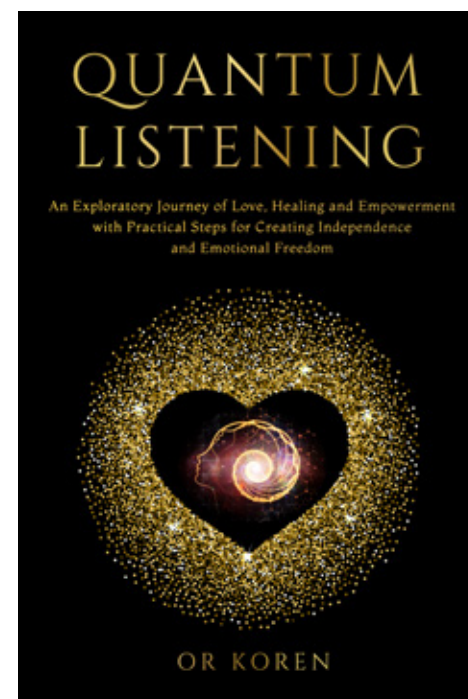

Through the inspiring stories of Genesis, intrigues of Exodus, lessons of Leviticus, enlightenment of Numbers, and insights of Deuteronomy, scripture and prayer will fill your heart each and every day.

THE POWER OF ANIMAL MESSAGES

NOAH GOLDBHIRSH

Throughout history, human cultures have had strong connections with animals. Animals communicate with us through their behavior, the sounds they make, their body language, and direct spiritual messages. The ANIMM method is based on the practices of the original Native Americans and is a means of communication through animals that has been adapted for the contemporary world. It allows every one of us to receive messages from the universe and understand various situations in our lives through the animals we meet.

QUANTUM LISTENING

OR KOREN

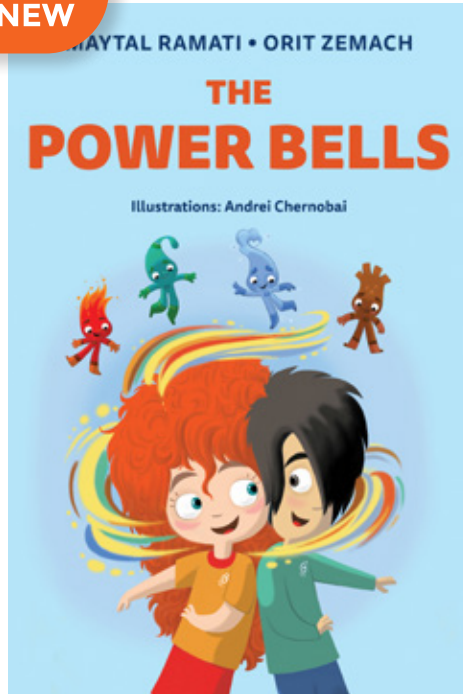

The more we listen to what is within, the more we realize that healing and change are not about specific techniques or healing abilities, but are made possible through deep listening.

Deep listening occurs when we learn how to encounter the qualities of our shadow self and our fears in parallel to our qualities of light and our unique soul gifts. In this book, you will receive powerful tools that will help you reach the deepest corners of your inner self in order to heal your soul's most ancient pains.
